

Contents

Note about Liability . . . . .	9
Prefaces
Judi Chamberlin . . . . .	11
Pirkko Lahti . . . . .	13
Loren R. Mosher . . . . .	15
Editor's Preface . . . . .	17
Introduction . . . . .	23
The Decision to Withdraw
Ilse Gold: After Discharge . . . . .	39
Peter Lehmann: Relapse into Life . . . . .	47
Withdrawal Without Pharmacogenic Problems
Gábor Gombos: How to Deny a Psychiatric Family History . . . . .	57
Jasna Russo: What If I Don't Sleep Ever Again? . . . . .	60
Carola Bock: And Finally I Said it All . . . . .	65
Jan Kuypers: Don Quixote and the Drug-Free Zone or: What Now, Little Jumping Jack? . . . . .	72
Maths Jespersen: Between Lobotomy and Antidepressants . . . . .	75
Coming off Step by Step
Wilma Boevink: Monsters from the Past . . . . .	77
Katherine Zurcher: Second Fear . . . . .	81
Michael Chmela: Escaped . . . . .	93
Bert Gölden: With Patience . . . . .	98

Counterweights

Una M. Parker: Talking, Crying, Laughing . . . . .	107
Nada Rath: To the Convent Instead of the Clinic . . . . .	111
Katalin Gombos: From Electroshock to the Voice of the Soul . . . . .	115
Iris Marmotte: The “Blue Caravan,” on the Road... . . . . .	117
Harald Müller: Twenty Years Later . . . . .	135
Gerda Wozart: Adversities . . . . .	138
Ulrich Lindner: I Ran for my Life. How I Healed my Depression . . . . .	142

To Withdraw with Professional Help

Eiko Nagano: Nishi Therapy—A Japanese Way . . . . .	153
Manuela Kälin: Home Visit by the Homeopath . . . . .	162
David Webb: “Please Don’t Die” . . . . .	164
Hannelore Reetz: Addiction or Search for Self . . . . .	174

Better Sometimes than Forever

Mary Nettle: Having Control Again . . . . .	181
Wolfgang Voelzke: Together with my Psychiatrist . . . . .	185
Lynne Setter: Return to Myself . . . . .	189

Professional Acting

Marc Rufer: Creating Fear / Removing Fear. When You Wish to Withdraw, the Opinion of Your Doctor is Dangerous . . . . .	197
Josef Zehentbauer: Who is Afraid of Withdrawal? Medical Advice and Psychotherapeutic Counseling During Withdrawal from Sedatives . . . . .	210
Martin Urban: “Am I Really Still Disabled?” Psychotherapeutic Support During Withdrawal from Psychiatric Drugs . . . . .	224
Roland A. Richter: Supporting Withdrawal with Orthomolecular Medicine . . . . .	231

Constanze Meyer: “Withdrawal from Dependence on Medication. Thoughts About Withdrawal from Benzodiazepines and Analgesics Among Women . . . . . 239

Klaus John: Withdrawal and Detoxification from Psychiatric Drugs from a Naturopathic Point of View . . . . . 253

Kerstin Kempker: Withdrawing from Psychiatric Drugs in the Runaway-House . . . . . 270

Elke Laskowski: Biodynamic Body and Aura Work with Bach Flowers, Stones and Colors . . . . . 273

The Time After

Regina Bellion: After Withdrawal, the Difficulties Begin . . . . . 279

Erwin Redig: A Mental Struggle. How I Stopped the Use of Psychiatric Drugs . . . . . 290

Leo P. Koehne: “Now I Give You Imap. This Will Also Help with Social Integration!” . . . . . 297

Closing Words

Karl Bach Jensen: Detoxification—in the Large and in the Small. Towards a Culture of Respect . . . . . 303

Closing Remarks by the Editor . . . . . 309

Appendix

Psychiatric Drugs’ Active Ingredients and Trade Names . . . . . 321

Sources . . . . . 327

About the Authors . . . . . 335

Index . . . . . 342